Bravo! re the movie Kitchen Party* (CBSC Decision 03/04-0928, December 15, 2004)

I. The Complaint

The following complaint dated December 10, 2003 was sent to CBSC:

To whom it may concern,

I wish to submit complaints about the recent television broadcasts described below.

Bravo has erred in airing the film "Kitchen Party" at 2:00 PM (Dec. 9, 2003). The word 'fuck' was broadcast at least one hundred times as well as at least one use of the word "cocksucker" during this film's airing. This is an inappropriate time of day for an unedited airing of this film.

Thank you for your consideration.

II. Broadcaster Response

The broadcaster responded to the complainant's letter on March 16, 2004, with the following:

Dear Mr. C,

Re: CBSC File Number C03/04-0928

I am responding to your letter to the CBSC about our airing of the film "Kitchen party" on Bravo! on December 9, 2003.

Your complaint relates to nature of the language contained in the film. Normally, when a film of this nature airs during the day, a day version is broadcast. Unfortunately, due to an error, a day version of this film did not play on this occasion.

We thank you for bringing this to our attention.

We apologize for any embarrassment or discomfort the broadcast may have caused.
